Dear Friend:

We are pleased to provide you with this copy of our Directory of Services Offered to Disabled Persons in New Brunswick (Spring 1989 version). We have made every effort to ensure that the listings are correct and cover as many resources as possible. Please advise our office if you discover any errors or omissions.

We are maintaining a list of addresses of all individuals and groups which receive the directory from us. We hope to continue to issue an updated directory on an annual basis. If you would like to continue to receive updated editions, please remember to notify us of any changes of address you may have during the year. Print-outs of amendments between annual editions can be provided on request.

Please note that we have attempted to reduce printing and shipping costs by not providing a cover. If you have a previous version of our directory, please destroy the old information pages and re-use the cover for this new version. Otherwise, a standard three-hole punch binder or duo-tang will work.

We hope the information will be of use to you and you will share the material with others.

Yours truly,

Randy Dickinson

INTRODUCTION

The Premier's Council on the Status of Disabled Persons is pleased to present this 6th edition of the Directory of Services Offered to Disabled Persons in New Brunswick. We have attempted to make all changes that have taken place in programs and services listed, and to include all new services that have been brought to our attention in the course of the past year.

If you find errors in any of the listings, or if you are aware of other services in your area that should possibly be included in the directory, please let us know.

Our intentions are to provide a descriptive list of services and programs offered by non-profit organizations or government to the people of the province with handicaps or disabilities. The Council is not responsible for the actual delivery of these services, however, and it is not our goal to imply an evaluation or judgement of the degree of professionalism of the services listed.

The previous editions of our directory have proven to be very useful in the past. We hope that this new version will be of assistance to you.

COMMUNITY SOCIAL SERVICES FOR CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS:

The "Community-Based Services for Special-Needs Children" program is a provincial government initiative under the specific direction of the Ministers of Health and Community Services and of Education. The ultimate goal is to provide a comprehensive system for serving all eligible special-needs children in the nurturing atmosphere of their home and community.

A child with special needs is described as one whose specific disorder or disability has been or is likely to be long term. Furthermore, the child's family and existing community services are not able to adequately meet the health, social and educational needs of these children.

Specific Community Social Services which are available through the Community Based Services Program are as follows:

Interdisciplinary Assessment - The services offered to meet the needs of each child are based on the results of an assessment by an interdisciplinary team of professionals. An individual service plan is then developed for each child, based on the child's strengths and needs.

Service Coordination - A service coordinator is assigned to each child and family receiving services to ensure the continuity and coordination of services necessary to meet the child's special needs.

Respite Care - Respite and emergency relief care are provided to a child with special needs for the purpose of providing relief to the family from the daily responsibilities of caring for their child.

Family Support Services - Family Support Services are a comprehensive range of services offered to provide support to the child and his/her family.

Residential Resources - Residential resources are available to children whose needs are such that they cannot be met in their own families.

Financial Support - Families caring for a child with special needs at home experience extraordinary child-care costs directly related to the special needs of the child. Families who are financially unable to meet the needs of their child may receive financial assistance to purchase necessary services and special items.

Other Community Social Services programs for children include prevention, protection and support services such as:

- Child Protection/Support
- Adolescent Parent and Child Services
- Children's Day Care
- Child Care Services

More information on any of these programs can be obtained by contacting one of the Regional Offices of Community Social Services.
